ABOUT BIG SKY:

Big Sky GC was built in 1991 and opened in 1994. Designed by Bob Cupp, Big Sky is laid out on 190 acres at the base of 8,000 foot Mount Currie in the Pemberton Valley. Big Sky is known for its generously wide bent grass fairways, difficult approach shots and tightly mown 'swales' around the greens.

Annually ranked in the Score Top 100, Big Sky was ranked #11 of the top 59 public/resort courses in the country for 2019. Other accolades include Golf Digests' top 30 courses in Canada, coming in at #26 in 2017. Also in 2017, the Luxury Travel Diary named Big Sky #5 in their top 10 bucket list courses around the world.
